

Anti-Bullying Policy

Last Reviewed: 9/15/2022

Bullying is a behavior that intentionally causes emotional or physical harm to another person or group of people. Bullying is often expressed by the following behaviors: Spreading rumors, excluding, tormenting, pushing, kicking, physical contact, and teasing.

According to 105 ILCS 5/27-23.7:

"Bullying" includes "cyber-bullying" and means any severe or pervasive physical or verbal act or conduct, including communications made in writing or electronically, directed toward a student or students that has or can be reasonably predicted to have the effect of one or more of the following:

- (1) Placing the student or students in reasonable fear of harm to the student's or students' person or property;
- (2) Causing a substantially detrimental effect on the student's or students' physical or mental health;
- (3) Substantially interfering with the student's or students' academic performance; or
- (4) Substantially interfering with the student's or students' ability to participate in or benefit from the services, activities, or privileges provided by a school.

Bullying may take various forms, including without limitation one or more of the following: harassment, threats, intimidation, stalking, physical violence, sexual harassment, sexual violence, theft, public humiliation, destruction of property, or retaliation for asserting or alleging an act of bullying. This list is meant to be illustrative and non-exhaustive.

"Cyber-bullying" means bullying through the use of technology or any electronic communication, including without limitation any transfer of signs, signals, writing, images, sounds, data, or intelligence of any nature transmitted in whole or in part by a wire, radio, electromagnetic system, photoelectronic system, or photo-optical system, including without limitation electronic mail, Internet communications, instant messages, or facsimile communications. "Cyber-bullying" includes the creation of a webpage or weblog in which the creator assumes the identity of another person or the knowing impersonation of another person as the author of posted content or messages if the creation or impersonation creates any of the effects enumerated in the definition of bullying in this Section. "Cyber-bullying" also includes the distribution by electronic means of a communication to more than one person or the posting of material on an electronic medium that may be accessed by one or more persons if the distribution or posting creates any of the effects enumerated in the definition of bullying in this Section.

TO REPORT BULLYING: Send an email to Ann at vgmschool@icloud.com, or call (847) 281-9911. Upon receiving a report of bullying, the school will:

- (A) Make all reasonable efforts to complete the investigation within 10 school days after the date the report of the incident of bullying was received and taking into consideration additional relevant information received during the course of the investigation about the reported incident of bullying.
- (B) Involve appropriate school support personnel and other staff persons with knowledge, experience, and training on bullying prevention, as deemed appropriate, in the investigation process.
- (C) Notify the Head of School or his or her designee of the report of the incident of bullying as soon as possible after the report is received.
- (D) Consistent with federal and State laws and rules governing student privacy rights, provide parents and guardians of the students who are parties to the investigation information about the investigation and an opportunity to meet with the Head of School or his or her designee to discuss the investigation, the findings of the investigation, and the actions taken to address the reported incident of bullying.

Reprisal or retaliation against any person who reports an act of bullying is strictly prohibited. Any individual who engages in such acts may be dismissed from the program.

Any individual who is found to have falsely accused another of bullying as a means of retaliation or as a means of bullying will receive appropriate interventions. Possibilities include classroom lessons surrounding bullying, lessons designed to build empathy, or in extreme cases, possible dismissal from the program.

The Board of Directors will review this policy annually and assess its implementation and effectiveness. The Anti-Bullying Policy is in accordance with policies of the Board of Directors and is consistent with the requirements set for by the American Montessori Society.

The policy will be promoted and implemented throughout the schools. The policy shall be posted on the school website and is included in the staff and parent handbook. It is distributed annually to parents, guardians, students, and school personnel, including new employees when hired. As part of the process of reviewing and re-evaluating the policy under subsection (d) of this Section, contains a policy evaluation process to assess the outcomes and effectiveness of the policy that includes, but is not limited to, factors such as the frequency of victimization; student, staff, and family observations of safety at a school; identification of areas of a school where bullying occurs; the types of bullying utilized; and bystander intervention or participation. The non-sectarian nonpublic school may use relevant data and information it already collects for other purposes in the policy evaluation. The information developed as a result of the policy evaluation must be made available on the Internet website of the school. If an Internet website is not available, the information must be provided to school administrators, school board members, school personnel, parents, guardians, and students.
